NEW ORLEANS MARKET, March 4 .- A fair extent of business has again been transacted in Cotton to-day, the sales having amounted to 6000 bales, of which a considerable portion was taken for the continent of Europe. The lower qualities can be purchased on terms a shade easier than prior to the arrival of the steamer's news.

The advanced period of the season at which we have now arrived, naturally engenders a good deal of speculation, or calculation—to express ourselves more legitimately—with regard to the probable extent of the crop, and a glance at the re-ceipts at all the ports as compared with last year, showing a deficiency of about 286,000 bales, is more apt to increase the difficulty of arriving at any correct estimate. The opinions, in fact, vary so largely, that we must fain make up our minds to await the lapse of six weeks or two months— in other words until the crop has nearly come to market-before any positive statement with regard to the real amount of production can be haz-

TO THE SICK AND AFFLICTED. Dear Sir: I take pleasure in communicating through you, to all whom it may concern, and the public generally, the astonishing effect your truly wonderful medicine has had upon me. I have not enjoyed perfect health for four or five years. Physicians told me my liver was diseased, and that sicians told me my liver was diseased, and that I might some day die with consumption. Last September, 1844, I took a slight cold, which pro-duced a hacking cough; this continued until Feb-ruary, 1845, when I added another cold; my cough increased, I soon lost my appetite, and my strength failed; for six weeks I could not lie upon my side; I sweat very much of nights, raised considerable blood during the winter, and could not speak a loud word for two weeks. With all these bad symptoms, I had very severe pain in my side and between my shoulders; general debility followed. I was confined to my room about eight weeks. I had buried a sister and brother, both selves in the Wholesale Grocery, Commission and weeks. I had buried a sister and brother, both Forwarding Business, under the style of R.
